Property Description

Just what it says! Steps to the beach and ocean view. The home is just across the street to the beach path down to Playa Negra. Literally, one minute or less to the sand. currently there are a number of empty beach front lots that will allow, for now, nice ocean and sunset views directly from the house. This is a new construction and has all the modern amenities that one would expect from modern architecture. The home boasts lovely quartz countertops in the kitchen and lovely warm wood accents. Each of the bedrooms is spacious and inviting and this home will prove to be a rental winner when you aren't enjoying it yourself. All of the bedrooms surround the pool and barbecue area. The development Rancho Playa Negra has public water, electricity and fiber optic internet. There is 24/7 security here and the HOA fees are around $220/month. It only takes a second to start realizing your dream...what are you waiting for?
