Property Description

This remodeled townhouse in the secure gated community of Hacienda Pacifica is an excellent opportunity to own in this recently built out development. This residential community is ideal for someone who owns or operates a boat in Marina Pez Vela, a family with young children or an investor looking for a steady flow of passive income. A 3 bedroom 2 1/2 bath townhouse, this property enjoys choice corner placement within the development which creates additional privacy and space for the owner. Also, this condo is located close to a small stream that flows nearby that attracts wildlife including Scarlet Macaws and Titi Monkeys. Drive into your covered carport to get into the condo comfortable and dry during the rainy months and cool and shaded during the dry months. Enter the townhouse in to a large open area with a chef's kitchen, living room and dining area complete with a half bath for convenience.
