Property Description

Casa Lapas is a beautiful 3 bedroom home with easy access, incredible views and a wonderful outside area. The property is over 3 acres which gently slopes down so there is plenty of room to add additional structures or create your very own paradise garden. There are currently fruit producing trees on the property (Lemons, Papaya, Coconuts, etc). This home sits on a hillside and as soon as you drive up the driveway you are met with amazing ocean and sweeping mountain views.Once you enter the home you will find a spacious living room with an open concept kitchen. Throughout the whole house you will notice the abundance of light coming in through the glass doors which open up to the pool area. This beautifully designed pool area ensures you can enjoy the amazing views of both the ocean and mountains. There is also a very nice constant breeze coming through this area making it a perfect place to relax!On the ground floor you will also find the master bedroom, and the master bathroom which is very spacious and has a very large bathtub! The home also features a garage, laundry room and half bath on the ground floor.
